DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-18 allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. For claims 1, 7, 13, the prior art does not teach singularly or in combination an adjustable frequency, and has a desired operating frequency, a first frequency counter wherein the first frequency counter counts the oscillator frequency; a second frequency counter, wherein said second frequency counter counts the line frequency of the AC power line, and a comparer, wherein the comparer compares the counted oscillator frequency against the counter line frequency and produces an output representative of the difference between the counted oscillator frequency and the counted line frequency, wherein the difference indicates a deviation in the oscillator frequency from the desired operating frequency, and wherein the output is input to the adjustable oscillator to adjust the oscillator frequency to the desired operating frequency.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
